ATTORNEY & COUNSELOR

Linda E. Wasielewski, Attorney

Linda E. Wasielewski is an attorney in Traverse City, MI. Her private practice of 10 years has focused on Domestic Relations, Mediation, Estate Planning (Wills & Trusts) and Probate. Linda is a trained Mediator for Civil and Domestic Relations matters and has completed the Advanced Training Certificate program with the Institute of Continuing Legal Education for Estate Planning.

These credentials and experience have served to meet and exceed the needs of clients going through the divorce process. Linda's mediation skills help clients meet their immediate needs of reaching a peaceful, long lasting resolution, while her estate planning background helps clients build solid foundations and legal safety-nets as they begin their new, post-divorce, lives.

Linda received her Juris Doctors' degree from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit, MI in 1978. She obtained her Bachelors Degree from Michigan State University and has also earned a Masters of Science in Taxation degree.

Linda served as a Law Clerk for Judges of the 3rd Judicial Circuit in Oakland County and Chief Deputy Corporation Counsel for Oakland County for 15 years.

She is currently a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Probate and Estate Planning Section, serves as the Literacy Chair of Zonta of Traverse City, volunteers for the Women's Resource Center and the Community Reconciliation Service. Linda is a former board member of Child and Family Services of Northwestern Michigan and was a 1997-1998 participant in the Leadership Grand Traverse program.
